MEMORANDUM FOR: Deputy Director of Central Intelligence

SUBJECT : Inspector General's Report on Foreign Intelligence Collection Requirements

REFERENCE : Memo dtd 18 Jan 67 for Multiple Adses fr DDCI, same subj

1. None of the recommendations in subject report are directed to the Support Directorate and none of the conclusions reached in the body of the report bear directly on this Directorate's duties and responsibilities.

2. Recommendation No. 27 and many statements in the body of the Survey deal with the need for analysts to be briefed on the preparation of requirements, on the Agency's collection guidance system, and on the capabilities of the various collection programs to obtain information in response to analysts' requirements. The Office of Training has produced a text on these subjects and has included lectures on collection programs in many of its courses for both analysts and collectors. The staff of the Intelligence School/Office of Training is ready to assist the appropriate directorates in setting up lectures and seminars to provide the kind of training needed to improve Agency collection requirements.
